

LARRY C. FULLER

Mining Engineer

SUMMARY OF QUALIFICATIONS

Operations/engineering manager with over 35 years extensive management and engineering experience with major coal companies in surface and underground mines, both domestic and international. Mining engineer that is planning and results oriented with a record of managing successful positive operations turnaround situations.

EMPLOYMENT HIGHLIGHTS

- Production foreman
- Master mechanic
- Mine planning
- Exploration
- Project management
- Management – mine, regional and company levels
- Executive management

PROFESSIONAL ACCOMPLISHMENTS

EXPANDED mine production at numerous surface and underground mines. EXTENDED mine lives by 3-20 years. INCREASED productivity at mines, ranging from triple to seven times. LEAD efforts to acquire reserves, mines and coal export terminal. PERFORMED financial turnaround from $2m loss to $2.5m profit without capital in 4 months. EXCEEDED profit objectives for 7.7mTPY western region of Consol. MANAGED startup of 3mTPY truck/shovel surface mine.

EMPLOYMENT HISTORY

Owner, Falcon, Inc., Madisonville, KY	1993-present
General Manager, Drummond, Ltd, Santa Marta, Columbia	1994-1995
Vice President-Operations/Engineering, Pyramid Mining, Inc., Owensboro, KY	1990-1993
President, Excel Resources, Inc., Madisonville, KY	1985-1987, 1989-1990
Vice President/Resident Manager, Nemo Coal Co. (UP Subsidiary), Moberly, MO	1987-1989
President, Arch of Illinois, Percy IL	1983-1985
Assistant Mine Superintendent, Mine Superintendent, Regional Engineer, Chief Engineer, VP-Operations/Engineering, VP-Mining, Sr. VP- Mining Consolidation Coal Co.	1968-1983
Pit Foreman, Asst. Master Mechanic, Master Mechanic, Peabody Coal Co	1965-1968
Guided Missile Repairman, U.S. Army. Ordnance Corps, Vicenza, Italy	1958-1961

EDUCATIONAL BACKGROUND

B.S. Mining Engineering – Missouri School of Mines, Rolla, Missouri	1965
Conoco Management Challenges	1972
Conoco Managerial Grid	1975
Executive Business Program, Indiana University, Bloomington, Indiana	1976, 1977
U.S. Army Guided Missile School	1958